PORTLAND, Oregon (November 14, 2021) – After a pandemic hiatus, get ready for a night of song, dance, humor, and fantastic live performances from Portland's Furriest Singers, as the BROADWAY BEARS, debut their new concert at the Funhouse Lounge on November 14, 2021! Titled “FUSION,” the BROADWAY BEARS will perform funny, tough and tender mash-ups and medleys from the musical realm of stage and screen, in their trademark entertaining way... complete with furry faces! And this time, they've got some first class friends from Portland's music realm to share the stage!

The BROADWAY BEARS, “Portland's Furriest Singers,” are Andy Mangels, Darin MacLeod, Donnie Vecchione, and Landon Shimek. For this concert, special guests from Portland's performing elite will include delicious diva Kate Faye Cummings, leading man Alec Lugo, superstar Laurie Kash, splashy songstress Shelle Riehl, bearded balladeer Tim Lafollette, and an appearance by Johnny Cakes!

With all live singing in solos, duet, trio, and group numbers, the “FUSION” concert will be a full-length cabaret performance that will leave you laughing and cheering. The three acts feature 17 numbers that are mash-ups and medleys from stage productions and films such as The Book of Mormon, Oklahoma!, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Summer Stock, Into The Woods, Sweeney Todd, Pocahontas, Hercules, Hunchback of Notre Dame, Aspects of Love, Song & Dance, Jesus Christ Superstar, Something Rotten!, Wicked, The Bodyguard, Hedwig and the Angry Inch, Chicago, Victor/Victoria, Moulin Rouge, The Rocky Horror Show, Dear Evan Hansen, Hamilton, and many more!

The concert will be at Funhouse Lounge, on November 14, 2021, with doors at 6:30pm, show from 7-9pm. Tickets are $10 in advance from brownpapertickets.com or $15 at the door ($10 for seniors or teens), with special reserved booth tickets also available.
